PREFACE

THE sales recorded in the present volume, XXVIII, of "American Book-Prices Current" for the Season of 1921-22, chronicle a year of satisfactory prices, wide range and significant promise. While there were recorded few features of spectacular interest, the sale of fair-priced items have been so numerous that the 117 sales yielded a total of 16,963 items, an increase of more than 2000 over the sales of the previous year, and this in spite of the general exclusion of extra-illustrated volumes, and a ruthless pruning of "Library Sets." An increased number of books in original bindings has been included, and it has been preferred to list numerous new titles rather than to duplicate prices on so-called "new editions."

Several general collections of high value and distinguished quality have been dispersed and the opportunities thus offered met with generous response. Among these, the collection of the Late Theodore Vail, sold at the Anderson Galleries, was representative. Besides the standard features of a rich general library, including a set of Shakespeare Folios at $9,500.00, $1,800.00, $5,500.00 and $475.00 and a "Catholicon" of Balbus de Janua at $2,200, this sale offered the most interesting item of Americana, a copy of the 1649 "Platform of Church Discipline" at $5,700.00. Among other important general collections sold at Anderson's were those of J. Herbert Foster, of Providence, a choice list of printed books and manuscripts; Miss Rita Wellman Leo, which offered a copy of Shakespeare's Poems, of the 1630 edition, at $2,095.00; and Miss Blanche Dupuy, the latter a discreetly chosen "personalized" list, containing a first edition of Kents's "Lamia" at $725.00 and a copy of the scarce Elzevir, "Le Pâtissier François" at $340.00. At the American Art Galleries was sold the Library of Mr. Louis Mohr of Chicago, a collection especially rich in fine bindings, costly editions, and specially printed sets. Another important sale at the American Art Galleries was that of the collection of Mr. Edward K. Butler, which offered among other rarities, a first edition of Fitzgerald's, "Omar Khayyam" at $800.00.

The most significant and interesting feature of the year's sales, however, lay in the growing tendency to specialization, which revealed an increasing stabilization of values, and a widening of the collector's field which brought into the market a number of items of great interest. Perhaps the most widely appealing feature of these specialized sales were the disposal at the Anderson Galleries of the Dickens' Collections of Dr. Jupp, of London, and William Glyde Wilkins, of Pittsburgh, the richest of those on both sides of the Atlantic, and these set of Anthony Trollope's first editions, which brought $1,700.00, and a set of W. D. Howells's first editions in the Foster sale brought $850.00.

A portion of the Van Antwerp collection of Early Printing and Manuscripts, at the American Art Galleries, comprising some fifty items, yielded a first edition of the "Imitatio" of A Kempis at $2,350.00, a Josephus, in the French edition of 1492 at $2,800.00, and the Wallace-Poor copy of Higden's "Polychronicon" at $1,900.00. The Van Antwerp sale also included a Coverdale Bible, of 1535, at $2,300.00, and two Caxton's: an "Aeneid" at $1,000.00, and Gower's, "Confessio Amantis" of 1483, at $3,200.00.

Throughout the season the Walpole Galleries offered full lists of attractive novelties in various lines, Gardening, Japanese Art, Old Medicine, Bibliography and Belles Lettres.

In the older Americana, the outstanding feature was the splendid collection of Colonial Acts and Laws of Judge Russell Benedict. Among them may be cited the 1649 Massachusetts Charter at $650.00, the 1675 "General Laws and Liberties of Massachusetts Colony" at $1,000.00, a New York Charter, printed by Zenger, at $550.00, and "Laws of the Province of Pennsylvania, 1714" at $1,000.00. The Libraries of James Phinney Baxter, Dr. Coutant, and C. E. Norton, all sold at Anderson's, offered countless opportunities to the student and collector, as did also the Manigault, Meade, Barnwell and Ruston Collections dispersed at Henkels. Books of Washington Association interest showed increasing value; a notable item was a set of Gibbon from the Mount Vernon Library, bringing $4,800.00.

The list of Almanacs in the present volume compares favorably with that of last year's, supplementing it with a number of new titles, many of these from the salesrooms of Charles Heartman, whose contributions to American Bibliography maintain their sterling value.

The newer Americana, that vast body of material dealing with the development of the Middle and Far West in the last century, continues to increase steadily in range and importance. Another portion of Dr. Frank O'Brien's Library was sold at Anderson's and proved to be rich in surveys, maps, numerous personal narratives and those often crudely written and roughly printed "locals" whose value has recently been recognized. A second file of "The Saturday Star Journal," realizing $1,200.00, was an interesting feature of the O'Brien sale. In this field the Heartman sales again contributed a steady succession of important items.

The season's sales of Manuscripts and Autographs were unusually full, making it necessary to exclude much material worthy of special mention in leaner years. The Van Antwerp list contained a 14th century Manuscript of the Wyclif Bible at $1,500.00, a Document signed by King Edward VI at $700.00, and the highest priced Manuscript item of the year, "The Froissart Chronicle," written on vellum, which brought $12,900.00. Among the numerous and valuable modern Autographs in the Foster collection were two important Mark Twain items, the Letters to W. D. Howells, selling for $3,000.00, and the Manuscript of "More Tramps Abroad," which brought $4,500.00; a collection of autographic material relating to "Oliver Twist" at $950.00; the manuscript of George Meredith's, "Egoist" at $350.00, and the unpublished letters of Ruskin to Henry and Emily Swann, which realized $2,200.00. The Louis Mohr collection contained an interesting Stevenson Manuscript, "The Young Chevalier," selling for $1,025.00, and Charles Lamb's "Commonplace Book" which brought $2,650.00. Another Stevenson Manuscript, "The Ebb-Tide," sold in the Depuy collection for $1,900.00. Among the numerous important Manuscripts sold by Mr. Henkels were Washington's letter proposing to establish the Federal City at Washington, D. C., selling at $550.00, and Edmund Randolph's Draft of the Constitution at $600.00. The O'Brien sale yielded the Swagerty "Survey of the Territory South of Ohio" which sold for $785.00, while at another sale at Anderson's, on October 17, 1921, was offered the most important item of Americana of the year, the long-lost "Fort Sutter Papers," which realized $8,450.00.

As the volume may come into the hands of some persons not familiar with the work, the following explanation of the scheme of this work and the abbreviations used, is reprinted from the earlier issues.

The name of the author (or, in the case of anonymous books, the first part of the title) is set in black-faced capitals.

Club or Press publications are (generally) under the Club or Press, and a few other books, such as anonymous histories and biographies, are entered under their subject. The titles of the various works of an author, printed in black-faced lower case type, are arranged in alphabetical order. This is followed by the place where printed, the printer (in a few cases), the date, and size of volume. The first portion of the description is general and applies to all copies of the work listed. Following this general description is the specific description of the copy or copies of the book as sold, each lot beginning a new line. This specific description is made up as follows:

First. A description of the binding, the abbreviations being those which are universally used and understood.

Second. A statement as to the condition of the particular copy recorded, if on large paper, with extra plates inserted, from a famous library, etc.

Third. The name of the sale, where a name was given on the catalogue. This does not mean in every case that the name as given is that of the owner of the book, as additions from other unannounced sources are often included with books of a known owner.

Fourth. Capital letter, indicating the name of the Auctioneer under whose management the sale took place.

A. is the Anderson Galleries.

B. is Charles F. Heartman.

G. is the American Art Association.

H. is Stan. V. Henkels.

W. is the Walpole Galleries.

Fifth. The date of the sale. In case of the sales of more than a single day's duration, this date is that of the first day of the sale.

Sixth. The lot number in the original sale catalogue.

Seventh. The price realized. This is the price for the lot, not per volume.
